Introducing OHLA Language School English Program

OHLA English program welcomes students from over 70 countries and it offers seven (7) strategic locations throughout the state of Florida, the "Sunshine State".

Their English program is recognized by a number of state and private Universities in the United States, and as such, countless OHLA students transition to bachelor and or graduate degree programs.

OHLA is one of the most respected English schools in the United States and we are proud to be a true Pathway to Higher Education

To provide a learning environment that challenges and supports students in achieving their linguistic goals for personal or professional growth, or in gaining entrance into an American University.

Qualified teachers strive to provide a student-centered environment which enhances academic learning and makes possible for students explore linguistic creativity.

Tuition for 2 months (writing and speaking) is $4320.

OHLA graduates can transfer to an off-campus paid employment as early as the first semester

OHLA graduates who transfer to a work-study university can choose to work in most major cities in the U.S.A.

Program designed so students can pass the equivalent TOEFL or IELTS requirements that our work-study schools have as pre-requisites,

Students learn to carry on a conversations so they can speak with the visa officers in "American Style" English in way so the officers can believe that they can succeed at the graduate level in any of our schools which they want to attend.

High ranking English program in the U.S.A

Very high visa success rate!

"Yay, we got our visa!"
